

Announcement of Valaya Alongkorn Rajabhat University under the Royal Patronage

No Gift Policy in Duty Performance on All Festive Occasions

In accordance with the Cabinet Resolution dated December 8, 2020, which approved the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct (Revised Edition), a key reform activity (Big Rock) was established as Reform Activity No. 4: "Develop the Thai Government System to be Transparent and Free from Conflicts of Interest," with Target 1, Item 1.1 stating: "All government agencies shall declare themselves as organizations where all government officials do not accept gifts or presents of any kind from the performance of their duties (No Gift Policy)." The Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) has issued guidelines for implementing the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Misconduct regarding the announcement of the No Gift Policy from the performance of duties for Fiscal Year 2026, announced on October 31, 2025.

Therefore, to achieve the aforementioned objectives, the administration of Valaya Alongkorn Rajabhat University under the Royal Patronage hereby announces the policy requiring all executives, faculty members, employees, staff, and personnel to "not accept gifts or presents of any kind from the performance of duties (No Gift Policy)" on all festive occasions and special events. The University graciously accepts congratulations, good wishes, or blessings during the New Year season and other occasions through greeting cards, congratulatory cards, or blessings via online social media, except in unavoidable circumstances where compliance with the criteria set forth in the National Anti-Corruption Commission's Announcement on Criteria for Accepting Property or Other Benefits in Accordance with the Ethics of Government Officials, 2020, is required.

This announcement is hereby made for general knowledge, and all executives, faculty members, employees, staff, and personnel are required to strictly comply with this policy.

Announced on 25 November 2025
